

PLAGIARISM POLICY

Plagiarism is the exploitative demonstration of replicating another person's earlier thoughts, cycles, results or words without express affirmation of the first creator and source. Self-plagiarism happens when a creator uses enormous piece of his/her own recently distributed work without utilizing proper references. This can go from getting a similar composition distributed in various diaries to adjusting a formerly distributed original copy for certain new information.

The editorial board of INDIAN JOURNAL OF HEALTH CARE, MEDICAL & PHARMACY PRACTICE (IJHMP) recognizes that plagiarism is not acceptable and therefore establishes the following policy stating specific actions when plagiarism is identified in an article that is submitted for publication in IJHMP.

The diary is rigorously against any dishonest demonstration of duplicating or plagiarism in any structure. Plagiarism is said to have happened when huge parts of a composition have been duplicated from existing recently distributed assets. Compositions discovered to be counterfeited during beginning phases of survey are out-properly dismissed and not considered for distribution in the diary. On the off chance that a composition is discovered to be appropriated after distribution, the Editor-in-Chief will direct starter examination, might be with the assistance of a reasonable advisory group established for the reason. On the off chance that the composition is discovered to be appropriated past as far as possible, the diary will contact the creator's Institute/College/University and Funding Agency, assuming any. An assurance of offense will lead diary to run an explanation bi-directional connected online to and from the first paper, to take note of the plagiarism and give a reference to the counterfeited material. The paper containing the plagiarism will likewise be set apart on each page of the PDF. Endless supply of the degree of plagiarism, the paper may likewise be officially withdrawn.

All authors submitting articles to journal are expected to abide ethical standards and abstain from plagiarism, in any form. In case, an author is found to be suspected of plagiarism in a submitted or published manuscript then, journal shall contact the author (s) to submit his / her (their) explanation within two weeks. If journal does not receive any response from the author within the stipulated time period, then the Director / Dean / Head of the concerned College, Institution or Organization or the Vice Chancellor of the University to which the author is affiliated shall be contacted to take strict action against the concerned author.